> No social study that does not come back to the problems of biography, of history and of their interconnections within a society has completed its intellectual journey.
C. Wright Mills (1959)

COURSE SYNOPSIS: “Contemporary Theory” is a designation commonly used to reference sociological theories that, in various ways, build upon the analytical foundations established by the so-called “Classic Thinkers,” such as Marx, Weber, Durkheim, and others. It is thus less of a “temporal” signification than a recognition that all subsequent theorizing represents a dialogue—constructive as well as critical—with important thinkers of the past (some famous in their lifetimes, others posthumously acclaimed). Within that continuing process of debate and dispute, earlier theories and traditions are selectively revised, extended, challenged, and rejected, with the result that new theoretical perspectives and conceptual categories are regularly added to our expanding base of knowledge. In this course we will focus on the two broad theoretical orientations in social science: approaches that place explanatory emphasis on the macro-structural aspects of social life, and those that place greater weight on the micro-dynamics of social interaction. The longstanding tension or rivalry between these two orientations is commonly styled the “Structure-Agency” debate, and much work in the field of Theory is dedicated to formulating more coherent and precise synthesizing accounts of the complex interrelations between the so-called “macro & micro” dimensions of social reality. This central issue—of properly integrating structure & agency, macro & micro—will serve as the organizing basis for our weekly engagements. C.Wright Mills’ programmatic advocacy for a “Sociological Imagination” that attends to the intersections of Biography, Social Structure, and History will provide the touchstone for our deliberations.

TEXTS: Selected Readings, to be placed as Modules on Quercus

REQUIREMENTS and GRADING:
4 Reading Reflections (~200 words each) on the Assigned Weekly Texts: Your Selection! (5% each = 20%);
1 Research Essay, approximately 1200 to 1500 words in length, due August 4 (30%);
2 Timed Online Tests (July 21 & August 11), form to be determined (20% + 20% = 40% total);
Critical Reflection Commentary (~800 words), due in the Final Assessment Period, Aug. 23 (10%)
& Class Participation (for outstanding contributions, bonus maximum 3%)

Learning Objectives: To (i) Master the arcane mysteries of Sociological Theories, as they pertain to the diverse social worlds human beings create, and are created by; (ii) Regale friends, family, and prospective future employers with your deep knowledge of complex subjects; and (iii) Enhance your skills in the crafts of writing and carrying out research.
Academic Integrity is fundamental to learning at UofT. Familiarize yourself with the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters, at http://www.governingcouncil.utoronto.ca/policies/behaveac.htm. It is the University rule book for academic behaviour, and students are expected to know those rules.

Plagiarism Policy: Ouriginal
Sometimes, students will be required to submit their assignments to the University’s plagiarism detection tool for a review of textual similarity and detection of possible plagiarism. In doing so, students will allow their essays to be included as source documents in the tool’s reference database, where they will be used solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism. The terms that apply to the University’s use of this tool are described on the Centre for Teaching Support & Innovation web site https://uoft.me/pdt-faq. For some of your assignments, we will be using the software Ouriginal. It uses text matching technology as a method to uphold the University’s high academic integrity standards to detect any potential plagiarism. Ouriginal is integrated into Quercus. For the assignments set up to use Ouriginal, the software will review your paper when you upload it to Quercus. To learn more about Ouriginal’s privacy policy please review its Privacy Policy.

Email policy: Owing to the large number of suspect/junk mailings I receive, I do not favor using this medium for class communication, other than for emergencies. My email address and home phone number are in the public domain, but my preference is for you to contact me in class for all course-related matters. NOTE: The TAs should be contacted first regarding all routine course matters.

Missed Tests: Owing to the large enrolment, no “make-up” tests will be offered. For students with officially legitimate reasons and documentable proof for absences on test days, the policy will be to substitute a score from another assignment for the legitimately missed exam. Missed Lectures: Students who miss classes are expected to obtain lecture notes from classmates.

Policy on Extension Requests: Extensions for completing course assignments can only be given in accordance with university rules, which are limited to medical situations or family emergencies. Students who miss the test, or are late in submitting an assignment for medical reasons, need to email the instructor (not the TA), and also declare their absence on the system (ACORN). (NOTE: Because of Covid-19, students do NOT need to submit the usual documentation, i.e., medical notes or the Verification of Illness forms.) Students who miss the test, or are late in submitting an assignment for other reasons, such as family or other personal reasons, should request their College Registrar to email the instructor. NOTE: Late papers without such documentation will not be accepted, and scored as ‘0’ pts.

Accessibility Services: If you require accommodations or have any accessibility concerns, please visit http://studentlife.utoronto.ca/accessibility as soon as possible.

WRITING ASSISTANCE Students can find information about college writing centres at http://www.writing.utoronto.ca/writing-centres/arts-and-science. It is recommended that you book appointments well in advance, as the Writing Centres are commonly very busy. See also the website Writing at the University of Toronto at www.writing.utoronto.ca. For numerous practical advice files, see www.writing.utoronto.ca/advice. Information about the English Language Learning program (ELL) is available at http://www.arts.utoronto.ca/current/advising/ell. There is also Reading eWriting, an online program that helps students engage course readings more effectively. For group instruction on writing and study skills, please refer students to the Writing Plus workshop series, described at http://writing.utoronto.ca/writing-plus. In 2020-21, workshops will be conducted as Bb Collaborate webinars. Students can join the webinars on Quercus using the following link: https://uoft.me/writingplus.

Publius Terentius Afer (c.195-160 BC) Roman comedic playwright from North Africa, Libyan Berber descent, purchased slave of a Roman senator, educated and later freed; six plays survive. Terence gives us a wonderful and inspiring motto for the social sciences (and life in general!):

Homo sum, humani nihil a me alienum puto. “Being human, I consider nothing that is human alien to me.”

“It is not sufficient for a theory to affirm no false relations; it must not hide true relations.”
Henri Poincaré, The Foundations of Science (1913)

“It distresses me, this failure to keep up with the leaders of thought as they pass into oblivion.”
Max Beerbohm (1921)

“Theory is only one moment of elucidation, and always lacunary and fragmentary.”
Cornelius Castoriadis, Crossroads in the Labyrinth (1978)
